AMERICAN LEGION POST 227

Chaplain (Major) Charles Scott was assigned to the Joint Munitions Command at the Rock Island Arsenal as Chaplain in April 2018. Chaplain Scott has served as a United States Army Chaplain for 16 years. He has deployed to Operation Iraqi Freedom twice (26 months) and recently deployed nine months to European Command in support of Atlantic Resolve 2.0.

Chaplain Scott is also a former Family Life Chaplain (Fort Belvoir).

Chaplain Scott was born and raised in St. Petersburg, FL. He is married to Shelby Scott, his wife of 31 years. He has two adult children; Olivia (22) and Stephen (21).

Joint Munitions Command manages 16 installations, which produce, store or demilitarize small-, medium- and large-caliber conventional ammunition items for Department of Defense. JMC is the sustainment and logistics integrator for life-cycle management of ammunition and provides a global presence of technical support to U.S. combat units wherever they are stationed or deployed.
